Site Navigation Information

The Company deploys commonly-used tools like log data, cookies, web beacons and IP logging to collect information as you navigate its sites.

Log Data: When you visit the website of the Company, our servers automatically record information that your browser sends whenever you visit a website as Log Data. This Log Data may include information such as your IP address, information about your mobile device such as your mobile id (similar to a website IP address), device type, mobile service carrier, browser type or the domain from which you are visiting, the websites you visit, the search terms you use, and any advertisements on which you click. For most users accessing the Internet from an Internet service provider the IP address will be different every time you log on. We use Log Data to monitor the use of our site and of our Service, and for the site's technical administration. We do not associate your IP address with any other personally identifiable information to identify you personally, except in case of violation of the Terms of Service.

Cookies: We use cookies and other technologies to personalize your experience on our site and monitor advertisements and other activities. Cookies are small files downloaded to your computer to track movements within web sites. Cookies link to information regarding what items you have selected for purchase at our store or pages you have viewed. This information is used to keep track of your shopping cart and make sure you don't see the same ad repeatedly. Also, we use cookies to deliver content specific to your interest and to monitor website usage.

MEDEX Laboratories Inc. uses cookies that are session-based and persistent-based. Session cookies exist only during one session. They disappear from your computer when you close your browser software or turn off your computer. Persistent cookies remain on your computer even after you close your browser or turn off your computer.

Medex Laboratories Inc. uses persistent cookies that only the Company can read and use to identify browsers that have previously visited the Company's sites. When you purchase the Services or provide the Company with personal information, a unique identifier is assigned to you. This unique identifier is associated with a persistent cookie that the Company places on your Web browser. We are especially careful about the security and confidentiality of the information stored in persistent cookies.

Most browsers are automatically set to accept cookies whenever you visit a website. You can disable cookies or set your browser to alert you when cookies are being sent. However some areas of our sites will not function properly if you do so. Please note that this privacy policy covers the use of cookies by Company only and does not cover the use of cookies by any advertisers.

Web Beacons: Web Beacons are small clear electronic images placed on a web page, web-based document, or in an e-mail message. We do not use Web Beacons to collect personal information about you. However, we may use Web Beacons to capture statistical usage information for our web pages, features or other elements on a web page. We may correlate this information to a user to personalize user experience and for statistical analysis of user experiences on our web pages. We may also use Web Beacons to provide you information about the Company, its partners and services.
